Papers, Publications, and Works of the Lincoln Inquiry

THIS BIBLIOGRAPHY attempts to identify all of the conference papers, publications, and works created by the Southwestern Indiana Historical Society during the 1920s and 1930s. If an item was presented or announced at a society meeting, the date is given in square brackets. “BE” refers to the identification number provided by Bess V. Ehrmann in The Missing Chapter in the Life of Abraham Lincoln (Chicago, 1938), 23–60. “EVPL” identifies the pages on which the item or a summary of the item is recorded in the four-volume “Annals of the Southwestern Indiana Historical Society” that is preserved in the Evansville Public Library. For Iglehart Papers, “Proceedings,” and SWIHS Collection see Abbreviations.
